Subject:	My summer holidays

Hi Robert,

This is our third week here in Europe and we're having a great time. The people are very friendly and the weather is good – even in Britain it was sunny and warm! We flew to London from Montreal and we spent four days visiting the city. There's so much to see and do! Unfortunately, we didn't see the Queen! Mike was very upset!

Then we took the train to Paris and we stayed with my cousin, Angie. We did some sightseeing and we visited the Louvre and the Eiffel Tower, of course. We had some wonderful food in small restaurants. I lost my passport in the Metro, so we went to the Canadian Embassy to get another.

After Paris we flew to Barcelona, where it was very hot. We made friends with some local people in a bar and they showed us the city. We took a bus to a small town on the coast and we found a hotel with a beautiful view on the sea. We relaxed on the beach for two days before moving on to Italy where we are now. We arrived here in Florence early this morning and we're having a big breakfast before we go sightseeing. After Florence, we are going to Rome, Athens and then Istanbul. I'll write again in two weeks' time.

Give my love to Anne and the children. See you soon!
